Terms of Contract

Kerelaw Building Preservation issues this Guarantee in accordance with the above contract, for TWENTY YEARS from the date of completion, that upon being notified as soon as reasonably possible of damp continuing to penetrate through our Water proof Tanking treatments installed under this contract we shall, provided the owner has kept the property well repaired and maintained, heated and ventilated, upon production of original Guarantee, survey report and drawings, inspect the wall or wall structure in which such Water proof Tanking Treatment were carried out and carry out further re-treatment to that wall structure where failure has occurred, to prevent such continuation of dampness without further charge.

The guarantee covers only those walls treated as indicated in the report where treatments have been carried out by our technicians and will be valid only upon production of the original signed guarantee, survey report and drawing and subject to payment of our standard re-inspection fee at that time.

Our Guarantee is conditional upon the following

This Guarantee, shall not apply, if damp continues to penetrate from the walls through the Kerelaw Building Preservation Tanking Treatments due to any movement or settlement of the wall structure or the foundations or any interference with such Water Proof Tanking Treatments.

The benefit of this Guarantee will be re-assigned should ownership of the property be transferred to another party, the successor will retain the benefit of the guarantee for the remaining term as per our transferring and assigning terms, on condition that we are notified within three months of change of ownership and payment of our standard re-inspection and re-registration administrative fees are paid in full.

Our Guarantee does not cover any works that was not carried out by our company

The common law and statutory rights of the client shall remain unaffected by this Guarantee

Kerelaw Building Preservation undertakes to deal with any claim under this Guarantee fairly and promptly as per our company re-inspection policy and conditions.
